Is my health information on My CS-Link secure?

We take great care to make sure your health information is kept private and secure. Access to your information is controlled through secure activation codes, personal IDs and passwords. You control your own password, and your account cannot be accessed without that password. We use the latest encryption technology, with no caching, to automatically encrypt your session on My CS-Link. Unlike regular email, all My CS-Link messaging is completed while you are securely logged on to our website.
